Re: Lisa Black v. PSS, et al.

Dear Heather:

I would like to take another opportunity to resolve the issue that has arisen with regard to your client's responses to my client's Second Set of Requests For Production. As I explained in my June 27, 2006 letter, PSS's responses did not specifically identify documents for the various requests. It is clear that when confronted with a "contention" request for production that merely stating that the document has already been produced is insufficient.

Can I expect an amended response that will include the Bates-stamp numbers that identify specific responsive documents? While I would like to work this out amongst ourselves, I am mindful that the deadline for filing discovery motions is approaching. Again, I would like you to consider this a final attempt to meet and confer in good faith without involving the Court.

Thanks and please feel free to give me a call if you think that we can work this out.

Very truly yours,

George L. Hasselback, Esq.

Cc. Ben Demoux.
